NIKKI PAYNE AND TERRY CLEMENT IN OTTAWA With Dave McDonnell at YukYuk's Downtown

OTTAWA, January 21, 2010 - It's a new year and Nikki Payne is bringing some old favourites and new material to YukYuk's Downtown. Nikki Payne & Terry Clement will be showcasing some material from their sketch comedy troupe: "Ted Hollister's Cow".

What: Nikki Payne & Terry Clement in Ottawa

Where: YukYuk's Ottawa Downtown – 292 Elgin St

When: January 21-23, 2010

Nikki Payne is a comedienne who hails from Nova Scotia and is one of Canada's most original comics. Her no holds barred style of comedy, and lisp are two things which make Nikki Payne stand out as an innovator in the Canadian comedy scene. She is the recipient of three Canadian Comedy Awards and two nominations for Gemini's.

Terry Clement presents an uncompromising, multi-media comedy freak-out that pushes the boundaries of reality, taste and modern humour. Terry's show is a highly original, progressive comedy experience that is more of a theatrical presentation than it is a stand-up comedy routine. Clement has performed at the Cape Town Comedy Festival in South Africa and the Reading Music Festival in England in addition to spots on the Paramount TV show "The World Stands Up" in the UK. Terry has been nominated for a Canadian Comedy Award as well as a COCA Comedy Artist of the Year Award.
